

Interprofessional Tracheostomy Workshop

Friday 23th March 2018

Registration 08:00am Program 08:30am – 4.00pm

Level 4, Educational Precinct,
Austin Hospital, Studley Road, Heidelberg 3084

A basic to intermediate workshop relevant to nurses, allied health and medical staff

Participants will gain:

- Increased understanding of an interprofessional tracheostomy team
- Increased knowledge and confidence in tracheostomy care
- Practical experience via interactive workstations and simulation
- Insight into the patient experience

Topics include:

- Fundamentals of Tracheostomy
- The Global Tracheostomy Collaborative (GTC)
- Practical Workstations
- Decannulation
- Care of Long-term Tracheostomy

Austin Staff $100.00 (incl GST) External Staff $440.00 (incl GST)
(includes morning tea, lunch, afternoon tea)

To register visit: www.tracheostomyteam.org

Enquiries: TRAMS@austin.org.au

The Tracheostomy Review and Management Service (TRAMS) is a consultancy service started at Austin Health in 2002. The expert team of doctors, nurses, physiotherapists and speech pathologists has managed over 4000 patients and provided numerous national and international workshops. Austin Health is the lead Australasian site for the Global Tracheostomy Collaborative.