

INTERPROFESSIONAL TRACHEOSTOMY WORKSHOP

Face to Face Workshop

Half day/ full day option available

Friday 19th April 2024
8.00am – 4.30pm

This event is presented by expert clinicians and people with lived experience. It is aimed at clinicians with a foundation to intermediate level of tracheostomy care experience in the adult population.

Enquiries:
TRAMS@austin.org.au

Click here to Register

Topics include

- Fundamentals of tracheostomy
- Types of tracheostomy tubes, cuffs and Passy Muir Valve (PMV) use
- Humidification and suctioning
- Stoma care and dressings
- Emergency management
- Decannulation
- Care of long-term tracheostomies

Participants will gain

- Multidisciplinary approach to tracheostomy care
- Translation of knowledge to practice using case study presentations
- Evidence based tracheostomy care delivered by expert leaders
- Practical and simulation sessions
- Learning from a long-term tracheostomy patient's experience

More Information:
www.tracheostomyteam.org